DOCX Learner submission · p. 4

"In conclusion, the policy clearly reduced unemployment in the region over the period."

RUBRIC C3

"Conclusions are supported by evidence from the sources."

WHY IT MATTERS

"Support your conclusion" says what is wrong, not where to start. A comment tied to the passage on p. 4 and criterion C3 gives the learner one revision they can make before the next marking round.

WHAT THE TUTOR DECIDES

The tutor checks that the comment is supported by the work and fits the rubric, then approves what the learner receives.

GRADES STAY WITH YOUR TUTORS

Your tutors approve every comment before a learner sees it and keep marking and grades.
